

As part of our 'People Who Help Us' / 'Transport' topic, we will be exploring a range of different vehicles and learning about the jobs different people do.

Next week, we have an exciting visit to look forward to! Trent Barton will be coming in with their team to show the children around a real bus, and the children will even get to go on a short drive around the local area. 🚌

